Lawson Products Appoints J. Bryan King to Board of Directors

CHICAGO -- (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Mar. 20, 2017-- Lawson Products, Inc. (NASDAQ:LAWS) ("Lawson" or the "Company") today announced that Mr. J. Bryan King, CFA, 46, has been appointed to fill a vacant seat on the Company's Board of Directors. He has also been nominated by the Board for election at the Company's annual shareholders meeting on May 16, 2017 to serve an additional three-year term.

J. Bryan King, CFA, is a principal of Luther King Capital Management and has acted as an investment manager responsible for micro and small-capitalization public and private investments since 1994. He founded and serves as managing partner of LKCM Capital Group, which is responsible for LKCM's alternative investment strategies. He also founded LKCM Private Discipline Partnership, a multi-strategy partnership that focuses on making strategic and collaborative investments in micro-cap and private companies, as well as LKCM Headwater Investments, a middle market buy-out firm that focuses on control and strategic private equity investments. Additionally, he established the firm's Distribution Holdings oversight advisory board in 2003 to support investment activities by LKCM and its affiliates in distribution, packaging, parts and services and rental focused businesses. Mr. King has served on boards of both public and private companies as well as civic organizations. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in History from Princeton University, received a Ranch Management degree from Texas Christian University, and received a Masters of Business Administration from Harvard Business School.

"We believe that Bryan's financial expertise, industry knowledge and deep professional background will bring insightful perspectives to our Board. We are very pleased with this appointment and look forward to his contributions," said Michael DeCata, President and Chief Executive Officer.
